Title:	Promoting and Protecting Rights Policy

1. Purpose

Reliant is committed to ensuring each Client accesses supports that promote, uphold and respect their legal and human rights and is enabled to exercise informed choice and control. The provision of supports promotes, upholds and respects individual rights to freedom of expression, self-determination and decision-making.

2. Scope

- a) This Policy applies to the provision of all services and supports at Reliant.
- b) All permanent, fixed term and casual staff, contractors and volunteers are required to take full responsibility for ensuring full understanding of the commitments outlined in this Policy.
- c) The relevant persons specified in the column corresponding to a procedure described in this Policy have the responsibility to implement the relevant systems, procedures, workflows and other strategies referred to in the relevant procedure.

3. Definitions

3.1 In this Policy:

Client means a client of Reliant including an NDIS participant or Home Care Package consumer.

Key Management Personnel means the General Manager and other key management personnel involved in Reliant from time to time.

Legislation Register means the register of legislation, regulations, rules and guidelines maintained by Reliant.

Policy Register means the register of policies of Reliant.

Reliant means Reliant Health Care Pty Ltd ABN 52 162 843 209.

Worker means a permanent, fixed term or casual member of staff, a contractor or volunteer employed or otherwise engaged by Reliant.

3.2 Defining Human Rights

Title:	Promoting and Protecting Rights Policy

Human rights are often defined in different ways. The Australian Human Rights Commission defines human rights as:

- a) the recognition and respect of people’s dignity.
- b) a set of moral and legal guidelines that promote and protect recognition of our values, our identity and ability to ensure an adequate standard of living
- c) the basic standards by which we can identify and measure inequality and fairness
- d) those rights associated with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

4. Policy Statement

- a) In the provision of its supports and services, Reliant is committed to ensuring that all Clients including persons with disability have the right to:
 - i) respect for their human worth and dignity.
 - ii) services and supports that are safe, ethical and free from discrimination, financial, sexual, physical or emotional abuse, neglect and exploitation.
 - iii) freedom of expression, self-determination and decision-making.
 - iv) realise their potential for physical, social, emotional and intellectual development.
 - v) full participation in society equal to other people, according to their individual and cultural needs and preferences.
 - vi) information and support to understand and exercise their legal and human rights
 - vii) privacy of their personal information and sensitive information.
 - viii) raise concerns and be supported to formalise complaints.
- b) In the provision of its supports and services, Reliant will:
 - i) actively prevent abuse, harm, neglect and violence or any breach of human or legal rights.
 - ii) take all allegations of abuse, harm, neglect and violence or any breach of human or legal rights seriously and respond quickly and sensitively in accordance with our Incident Management Policy.
 - iii) provide access to support when any allegation or breach occurs.
- c) In the provision of its supports and services, Reliant will employ skilled Workers and has systems and processes in place to support Workers to understand, promote, protect and incorporate legal and human rights into everyday practice.
- d) Reliant will proactively and sensitively support each Client, to the limits of our expertise and resources, in circumstances where human and legal rights are being breached by others.
- e) Reliant supports each of our Clients to engage with their family, friends and chosen community as directed by the Client but recognises that the Client is the decision maker and has the final say in planning and decision making about their services and supports (unless a guardian has been legally appointed).

- f) Reliant will direct each of our Clients and, if appropriate, their families, friends and chosen community, to all other avenues of support available for the protection of their legal and human rights including to access legal or advocacy services that can inform them of their legal and human rights while they are receiving a service or support from us or from any other service provider.

5. Procedure

The Policy is supported by the following Procedures which are intended to clarify the responsibilities of the board, General Manager, Key Management Personnel and other Workers and make explicit the underlying principles of the Policy. The Procedures work together dynamically and are relevant to all parts of Reliant. The Procedures are not ordered in priority and all are important to achieving the aims of the Policy Statement.
